2016 Jefferson Farmers Market Rules and Regulations

License, Permit, Labeling and Permission Information: All vendors are required to supply copies of state and county licenses issued by regulatory agencies as required for your product(s). It is the vendor(s) responsibility to obtain and provide to the Market Manager copies of all licenses and permits required for the sale of vendors' products at the JFM. Please make sure you have the proper forms filled out as there are new laws in 2016 that pertain to specific items. Liability Insurance- Vendors are responsible for their own personal and product liability insurance. Insurance is encouraged for all vendors, and those selling potentially hazardous foods. Labeling- Vendors are responsible for meeting all label requirements. For updates you may visit the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection at (608)-266-2776, or the Watertown Health Department at (920)-262-8090 for more information.

Agreement: I have read the rules, regulations and policies as described for the JFM and hereby to abide by them. Further, I agree to sell at the JFM the items I have listed above. I also acknowledge these products must be of my own production. I agree that the JFM has the authority to immediately settle any disputes regarding product legitimacy, procedural and vendor conduct rule violations set forth in the market rules. Discrimination of any kind is not allowed at the market. I understand that the JFM does not carry any insurance policies to cover individual participants and that I understand I may be required to carry such insurance. I acknowledge I am responsible for the products I offer for sale, the employees, volunteers and others who assist me, planning material setup operation and tear down of my vendor stand and the product display. I agree to hold the City of Jefferson harmless from any claims, liabilities, costs and expenses incurred due to any personal injury or property damage resulting from or caused by my products, any components of my vendor stand, or the employees, volunteers and contractors who help me operate my stand and I agree to indemnify the City of Jefferson for any claims, liabilities or costs including attorney fees and other legal costs, it incurs related to such personal injury or property damage. The Market Committee uses photos during the market that may be used for publicity. If you prefer not to have your photo used, please contact the market manager. The Jefferson Farmers Market will not use names of a vendor(s) should that request be made.
